Wyoming Man Gets Boost for In Spirited Game Collegiate In-Job From Many Fans.

In telling of a talk with Johnson just after the articles were signed, Gillison said: "Jack told me that everything was going fine to suit him. He said that he knew Jeffries wanted a lot of time before the fight, so as to make as much money as possible before the fight, because he would not have a chance afterwards.' He also said that he did not have to be in such good shape as he was even at the present time to whip Jeffries, Jack told us all to bet on his whipping Ketchel by a knockout, and he says now to get down on him against Jeffries. Jack is a man who has never exerted himself in a fight yet, and once he stops grinning, watch out. Personally, I am sure Jimmy Coffroth will land the fight, even if he does not offer the most money. Jeffries wants to fight in San Francisco and Johnson don't care. All of their friends are there and it is the only logical place for there and it is the only logical place for

CRUSADE ON SPIKES WILL HAVE HEARING

New York, Nov. 20.—A proposition to do away with the wearing of spiked shoes by ball players will be considered by the magnates of the National ered by the magnates of the National ered by the magnates of the National and American leagues when they meet here next month. So many players have been injured by being "spiked" that action is deemed necessary.

One plan is to substitute leather cleats or rubber balls on the soles of players' shoes. Many players say this is impractical. The other remedy suggested by Secretary Barnard of the Cleveland Americans is to adopt a rule prohibiting players from sliding feetprohibiting players from sliding feet-first into a base.

Mr. Painter admitted yesterday that he had been urged to put in his bid and get in the game for the job, both as a boost for himself and for the intermountain country.

The Wyoming man is being backed by practically all of the intermountain fans, and some friends ciose to the principals are also working in his behalf. G. F. Gillison, a close friend of Johnson's, is in Salt Lake, and with others is in the campaign to land the job for Painter. All the intermountain bidders for the fight are also in line.

While Mr. Painter has not a national reputation, all those that have watched his work in the west are confident as to his ability to act. The job would put Evanston on the map all over the fight world, at any rate.

Mr. Painter says that the Sullivan-Collins go will draw well from his part of the country, as both men are known as fighters and good ones.

TO WIN FROM IOWA

Lawrence, Kan., Nov. 20.—Old-style line charging football triumphed over the new open play, when Kansas university defeated the University of Iowa here today by the score of 20 to 7. The ability of the Kansas men to charge and gain ground through the line was shown at its best. Iowa tried the new style game from the first with fair success, making a gain of 20 yards on the forward pass and following it up with another gain of 15 yards on the same play.

Magidsohn went through left tackle for five more, putting the ball on Minnesota's 30-yard line, but he was then thrown for a five-yard loss.

Allerdyce attempted a place kick, but failed, Minnesota taking the ball on its forward pass on Minnesota's 35-yard line and ran over for a touchdown. Allerdyce kicked goal.

LANGFORD SPARRING FOR MIDDLEWEIGHT TITLE

Pittsburg, Nov. 20.—Sam Langford, who will fight Mike Schreck here next Tuesday evening, has laid claim to the title of middleweight champion. By this contention he im rds to torce Billy Packe, who also claims the title, to fight him. Langford said yesterday that, while he does not intend to give up his attempt to force Johnson into a match, he is entitled to recognition as the middleweight cham-pion now that Ketchel cannot make the weight. By making this claim Langford admits he has no other purpose in view than to force Papke to fight him.

HIGH SCHOOL IS WINNER AGAIN

Swamps All Hallows, but Has to Play Great Foot-

The Salt Lake High school football team defeated the All Hallows college elevens yesterday afternoon on Cummings field in their second game of the season, by a one-sided score of 44 to 0.

The Red and Black supporters, with flags and pennants, occupied the west benches and cheered wildly as their favorite warriors rolled up the score.

The college lads showed much better form and condition than they did in the first game with the High school, and were it not for the fact that their defense was much weaker than their offense, the score would have been much closer. During the short time that the Catholics had the pigskin in their possession they seldom failed to hit the line or circle the end for good gains, but gumble or pooriy executed forward pass usually lost them the ball.

The High school ran off a series of line plunges and half back cuts which proved too much for the college. The Red and Black boys took no chances and executed the on-side kick and forward pass only when they had the best of chances.

Stevens, the crack place and drop kicker for the Catholics, in whom the college placed a great deal of faith, did not have an opportunity during the game of showing his ability, although his punting was strong. Romney for the High school team tried three times for a drop, missing all by short margins.

Captain Fitzpatrick won the toss and the college kicked to Gallacher, who was downed on the 25-yard line. Wheeling smashed the right for ten yards and Gallacher circled the end for 20. Crouch broke through and smashed up the High school interference; the Red and Black fumbled. All Hallows recovering the ball. Crouch hit the line for 10 yards, but Mc-Kay was thrown back for a loss. An onside kick placed the ball in the center of the field in possession of the High school. The Red and Black boys now started to tear up the field, Worthman, Romney, Callacher and Goodspeed going for large gains. Wheeling bucked the line, placing the pigskin on the 2-yard line, where Romney on the second down carried it over. Romney kicked goal. Score, 6 to 6; in the first five minutes of play.

The college on two large gains by Crouch and McMaster advanced the ball to the center of the field, but were held for downs. Romney, Goodspeed, Wheeling and Gallacher hurried the ball back to the Catholic 25-yard line, where Romney attempted to drop kick, but missed. The college spread for a long forward pass, but Worthman interfered, recovering the ball. Wheeling bucked the left for 11 yards, and on the next down Goodspeed, carefully picking his boles and The Play.
